LePopulaire

The Café | Restaurant at PalaisPopulaire

Modern fusion cooking and homemade patisseries: At LePopulaire guests can enjoy international and regional cuisine with vegan and vegetarian specialties as well as a wide range of cakes and pies. LePopulaire is run by the renowned restaurateurs Kofler & Kompanie.

The Opera Café at the Prinzessinnenpalais, which opened in 1963, was an institution. It quickly became one of the most popular meeting places in East Berlin. Kofler & Kompanie are now picking up on this hospitable tradition under new premises. LePopulaire's offer ranges from quick snacks to festive dinner events. The café|restaurant caters to people interested in culture, families, and tourists, as well as to business events and private celebrations in an exclusive framework.

LePopulaire brings together culture and culinary enjoyment. It is ideal for special events, including family brunches, lunch lectures, and after-work events. Another highlight is the ClubPopulaire. Once during each exhibition, local and international DJs of various genres play sets that are inspired by the exhibition and transmitted to the gallery rooms. The ClubPopulaire also carries on the tradition of the house: The Opera Café was not only famous for its cakes, but also for the wild disco parties that the East Berlin scene attended in the 1980s.
